RE: Master Builder & Master Architect Award

Brethren,

I have been presented with several questions in regards to the Lodge representation portion of the awards in relation to participation in Youth Group meetings. Since all of the Youth Groups are still only meeting in a Zoom/On-line format, the requirement for this portion of the awards will be allowed through this format. All Lodges will need to coordinate with your respective DDGM's for certification of attendance at these meetings. Some options would be to have the DDGM attend with you. Have the youth body include the attendance in their meeting minutes and send you a copy of said minutes. Or possibly even a screen shot showing your attendance. These are just ideas for verification. Ultimately your DDGM has to sign off on this so coordination with them is vital to achieving this requirement for the awards.

The approval for attendance of meetings in this format is strictly for the Youth Groups.

Fraternally & Sincerely
